Learning Outcomes

After completing this module, you would be able to gain:

1. Exposures in non-financial statement audits in addition to audit of financial statements.
2. In-depth knowledge and techniques involved in several specialised assurance and attestation activities
3. Broader career perspectives in the accounting and auditing professions
4. Understanding of the importance of ethics, audit quality and the psychological biases that may be present when making professional judgments
5. Opportunities to interact and discuss with other students to discover, learn and assimilate knowledge, refine skills and apply their knowledge in problem solving.

Teaching and Learning Activities

Each student is expected to have read all lecture notes and pre-assigned case studies before attending each weekly lecture so to meaningfully participate in discussion. The instructor will randomly select from the class roster, any student, to respond to questions and discussions. Groups of five or six students each, will be formed to work on a case presentation project. Each group will present its research and results to the entire class during the second half of the semester.

Textbooks

Relevant readings will be assigned for each topic. Students are expected to read up on all lecture notes posted by the instructor on IVLE and do their own research for further understanding.

“ACC3613 (Jan 2016) – Auditing Cases” (Cengage) is the customized case eBook which forms the basis of the case presentations in class. The eBook costs S$19.90 inclusive of 7% GST and is available at NUS Co-op. To purchase, visit NUS Co-op and tell the staff that you are buying the eBook (casebook) for ACC3613. Upon purchase, an Access Card will be given, which will contain instructions to redeem the eBook.

Instructions on Case Tutorial Presentations

Cases will be based on those in the e-book “ACC3613 (Jan 2016) – Auditing Cases” (Cengage). The course coordinator will announce the title of the specific case a few weeks before the presentation date, as well as the group that will be presenting it. You should apply your auditing knowledge from not just this module but also ACC3603 Assurance & Attestation. You may also be required to do some research in order to answer the questions.

A written submission (powerpoint format) is required for each group assigned to present a case set. Each presentation is not to exceed 40 slides. Marks would be deducted for presenting more than necessary required to answer the questions.

The written submission is to be emailed to the relevant instructors by the preceding Saturday (15 October) 12 noon. 5% marks deduction (of case total) would be made for late submissions. The presentation must be consistent with the written submission.

The focus on the presentation is on the technical content – 12 marks, 1 mark for organisation of the presentation and 2 marks for presentation and Q&A ability. (Total 15 marks).

Please restrict your presentation to within 20 minutes and focus on application to the case.

Any intention to make a submission for peer review should be made as soon as possible. The last date where such a submission may be made is 2 November 2016 . Submissions beyond this date will not be entertained.

Group Project

This project involves research into an Asian business event or scandal that has an audit focus. Students are required to draw up a case study not only tells a good story but also illustrates the complex audit and ethical issues that auditors face in the course of their work.

The tentative project submission is during the week beginning 17 October 2016, and graded presentation of the projects will be held during the week beginning 7 November 2016.

Details will be released at a later date.
